

"Me and Catharine Susan"

"The and Catharine Susan"

by Kathleen Ainslie.

Castell Brothers Ltd
London

Designed in England - Printed in Bavaria

Wouldn't you like
me to tell you
all about our family?

There are lots of us -
some big - some little.
I'm Maria - me and Catharine Susan
is twins -

Sometimes we have
parties —
Tea parties are
the nicest —

And games
afterwards -

The only bother is having to

wash up the tea
things —
Catharine Susan
always sits down
& puts up her hands
and I know
whats coming!

"O Maria, I've
got such a
to-o-oth-ache
boo! - hoo! - hoo!"

and that means
me to do it
all!

One day — when
cook had gone
to market —

and we had been washing
our clothes
at home —

An invitation
to a party!!!

The postman brought us a Big letter.

We never have
any money to spend
so we just had to
put on the smartest
things we had -

It was snowing
dreadfully when we started - and
just as we got there Catharine
Susan fell down -

of course she
broke her leg—
and didn't she
yell when the
doctor tied
it up—

and— hush,
I will whisper—
I think she
liked it—
getting well I
mean—

*I learn
singing-*

and

*Catharine Susan
plays the
fiddle—*

Now and then we have a
grand
scrubup!

Catharine Susan
doesn't do that—
She takes the baby out!!

oh dear — I've used up all
the ink — so
I can't write any more —
Goodbye —

an ebook published by Project Gutenberg Australia

